Vickie,

We received Fairchild's most recent production documents this morning via FedEx, but there is only a single page related to the FSQ0170RNA. That page, FCS1700329, says "Refer to AR3653J-37XT-REV0" at the top, which I take to be a reference to the schematics for the FSQ0370RNA part in that same family in light of other markings on the document. The FSQ0x70RNA family of parts is covered by a single data sheet (attached), so it may well be that the parts all share common schematics, but we cannot evaluate these products with the single page you produced to us today. Please produce whatever complete set of schematics corresponds to these parts so that we can evaluate your claims as soon as possible.

Thanks.

Michael
